

I have both XM and Sirius satellite radio. I think they should be allowed to offer any programming they wish. It is an issue of freedom to do business. The NAB is not serving the public good by trying to restrict what satellite can broadcast. The NAB is only interested in their selfish interests.